

Pennsylvania Defense Institute
and
Philadelphia Association of Defense Counsel in coordination with
DRI

--present--

Continuing Legal Education followed by a Reception

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at 300 Years:
From British rule to Judicial Federalism

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania is the oldest continuously operating appellate court in the Western Hemisphere. Topics explored by the panel will include the Court's beginnings in 1684 as the Provincial Court established by William Penn, the statutory establishment of the Supreme Court in May 1722, the relevance for statehood, and the Court's contributions to the development of American law and principles of judicial federalism.

This program will take place at DRI's 2022 Annual Meeting in Philadelphia, Pa. and is jointly sponsored by the Pennsylvania Defense Institute and the Philadelphia Association of Defense Counsel. Please share in this unique opportunity to come together with members of these national, state and local defense bar organizations to educate, meet and network.

Date: October 26, 2022

Time: 4:00pm (CLE); 5:00pm (Reception) Registrants are also welcomed to attend DRI's Welcome Reception, which is from 6:00pm-7:30pm.

Place: Philadelphia Marriot Downtown, 1201 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

CLE Credit: 1 Substantive (Pa.) - No Fee for CLE and Reception

Moderator:

Kenneth S. Butensky, Esq. - Chief Deputy City Solicitor, City of Philadelphia

Panel Members:

Charles "Chip" Becker, Esq., - Kline & Specter, P.C.

Craig Green, Esq., Ph.D. - Professor of Law, Temple University

John J. Hare, Esq., Marshall Dennehey

Register for this free event by contacting either:

Chuck Wasilefski – PDI

cwasilefski@padefense.org

800-734-0737 or 717-238-7555, ext. 110

---or---

Dave Cole - PADC

844-744-5600

dcole@philadefense.org

Note: This program has a separate registration from the DRI Annual Meeting. While registration is encouraged for the DRI Annual Meeting and this program, you are not required to register for both.