

2024 Diversity Professional and Business Development Mentoring Program Application

Submission Deadline: September 6, 2024

Program Requirements

The Diversity Professional and Business Development Mentoring Program was developed by the DRI Diversity & Inclusion Committee and the DRI Corporate Counsel Committee. The Mentoring Program is designed for high-potential, early-career civil defense attorneys who are members of DRI and are from historically underrepresented groups. The goal of this program is to provide mentees with practical tools for developing and leveraging relationship-building skills applicable to law firm practice. Selected participants will be paired with a senior-level attorney from the DRI Diversity & Inclusion Committee and with an in-house counsel.

Mentees must have fewer than 10 years of civil defense experience, be a DRI member, be a full-time attorney, and be a member of at least one underrepresented groups, including but not limited to:

- African American/Black
- Hispanic/Latino
- Asian-American/Pacific Islander
- Native American/Indigenous People
- LGBTQ+
- Multi-Racial
- Disabled
- Women

Application Process

Applications must include two recommendations, one each from the following categories:*

- A) A current or past employer.

* Letters of recommendation may be submitted directly by the applicant or submitted directly by the recommending party at the e-mail or address provided herein.

B) An individual who is personally acquainted with the applicant, but who is not related by bloodline, marriage, or adoption.

Each applicant also must include a cover letter and a current resume. In the cover letter, each applicant should identify the applicant's practice areas/industries and professional accomplishments. The cover letter should also detail how the applicant's professional accomplishments qualify the applicant for the Mentoring Program.

The application can be submitted either in PDF format via e-mail or in hard copy format via USPS/UPS/Federal Express. The application packet submitted should include all required information, including completed application form, letters of recommendation, cover letter, and resume.

The completed application packet should be emailed or mailed to:

driTM Diversity and inclusion In DRI: A Statement of Principle

DRI is the largest international membership organization of attorneys defending the interests of business and individuals in civil litigation.

Diversity is a core value at DRI. Indeed, diversity, which includes sexual orientation, is fundamental to the success of the organization, and we seek out and embrace the innumerable benefits and contributions that the perspectives, backgrounds, cultures, and life experiences a diverse membership provides.

Inclusiveness is the chief means to increase the diversity of DRI's membership and leadership positions. DRI's members and potential leaders are often also members and leaders of other defense organizations. Accordingly, DRI encourages all national, state, and local defense organizations to promote diversity and inclusion in their membership and leadership.
